Treason	To betray your country or monarch.	There were no police during the Tudor times. However, laws were harsh and wrongdoing was severely punished. In Tudor times the punishments were very, very cruel. People believed if a criminal's punishment was severe and painful enough, the act would not be repeated and others would deter from crime as well.
Beheading	A punishment which resulted in your head being chopped off with an axe.	A public execution was an event not to be missed and people would queue through the night to get the best places. There was always a carnival atmosphere and pie sellers, ale merchants and producers of execution memorabilia did a good trade. 70,000 people suffered the death penalty during the reign of Henry VIII.
Gallows	A wooden structure where people were hung by a piece of rope around their neck.	There were many different methods of execution including: beheading, hanging from the gallows or burning.
Stocks	A block of wood with two holes for your hands and a hole for your head to go in. Local people threw rubbish and rotten food at the people in the stock.
